ANNOUNCING FULL DAY KINDERGARTEN AT THE UCECP!

(minimum age: 5 years old by September 1)

IMPORTANT FACTS:

- Kindergarten will be offered on the third floor in the new "Kindergarten Corridor". This corridor will be secure with our security system.
- Drop-off and pick-up for kindergarten will be a drive-up car pool.
- The kindergarten will operate Monday-Friday from 8:30am-2:45pm.
- The first day of attendance for 2019 will be 8/26. The last day of attendance will be 5/21/20.
- This classroom will feature two teachers with degrees that are relevant to working with kindergarten aged children. One of these teachers will have an active teaching certificate with the Illinois State Board of Education.
- The classroom will have a maximum of 23 students.
- This longer day will enable us to focus on the necessary skills in kindergarten, but at a pace that is respectful to children and their development.
- Due to the arrangement of the kindergarten corridor and the presence of two teachers within the classroom, reading and math instruction will happen in small groups.
- The math, reading and phonics curriculum will be the same that District 181 uses to assure a smooth transition into first grade.
 - Math will be Math in Focus by Houghton Mifflin
 - Reading will be Reading Fundamentals - Foundations and Leveled Literacy.
 - Phonics will be Jolly Phonics.
- The children within the UCECP kindergarten program will be held to the same academic standards as District 181's kindergarten classrooms.
- The tuition cost will be $922 a month over 9 months. First month's tuition must be attached to the application for consideration.
- There is a one time $200 book fee and a $100 technology fee.
